

Thank you for participating in this fun and interesting History Walk! Follow the map inside this brochure to the numbered signs at each location. Read each site's history and answer the questions. To receive your prize (t-shirts for children while they last and a copy of The History of Greensboro or The Architectural Walking Tour of Greensboro for adults), return your completed questionnaire to the Greensboro Free Library.

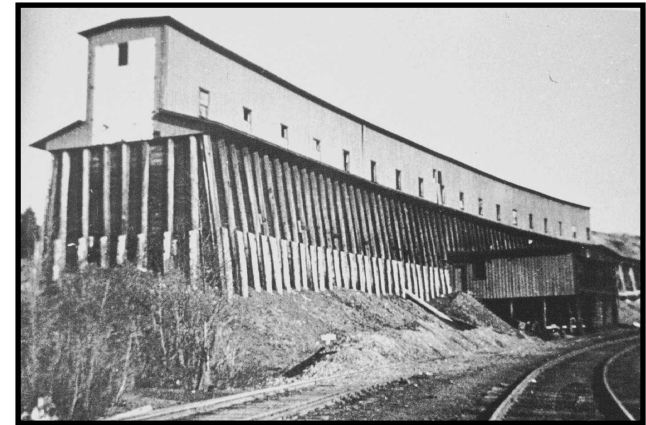

QUESTIONS:

1. Where in the Bend would a farmer buy food for animals in the 19th century?
2. What made the architecture of the Methodist Church unique?
3. What product was once sorted, graded, cleaned and bagged before shipping from the current Hill's Trucking site?
4. Where would you head in the early 1900s if you wanted to have fun dancing, watching films or cheering at a basketball game?
5. Where would a train in the Bend get fuel to continue its journey?
6. A person living in Boston in the 1930s might have enjoyed milk sent from which business in the Ben (now an empty lot)?
7. Which building once important to the Bend burned down in 2020?
8. The Railroad Station had a dual purpose both for a station and what other service?
9. Where did about 40 men make shingles and boxes in the 1800s?

To take another self-guided walk, please visit the Greensboro Library or the GHS for the brochure. To find out more about the history of both Greensboro and The Bend and their buildings, check out The History of Greensboro and/or The Architectural Walking Tour of Greensboro.
