

GREENSBORO HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING MINUTES
TUESDAY, June 11, 2019 Greensboro Free Library

Present: Lise Armstrong, BJ Gray, Clive Gray, Kyle Gray, Paula Harmon, Nancy Hill, Jenny Stoner, Lynette Courtney, Erika Karp, Barbara Brooke

President's Report: Willie called the meeting to order and thanked the members/work crew who arrived at GHS at 10am to help with the spring cleaning: dusting, straightening, washing windows, hanging curtains.

Secretary's Report: There were significant corrections to the May minutes: 1. More detail was added to describe the Bayley-Hazen walk scheduled for Sunday, July 28th. 2. Margie Prevost graciously offered a PLACE for refreshments after the walk and 3. There was the possibility of a follow up talk by Sister Gail with Dirk Lorenz. There secretary's report was accepted.

Summer Exhibit: Nancy will go to Green Mt. Monastery after June 19th to assist with the exhibit set up. She needs to get in touch with Wendy Parrish for posters and have one blown up in size for the sandwich board.

Acquisitions: GHS will be receiving a painting, a winter scene. The artist is Harold Lindquist. His grandchildren are the Dales, Andy and Judy.

Erika read an entertaining excerpt from the HRD on Timothy Hinman, namesake of Hinman Road.

Nancy will take care of writing an article for the upcoming Greensboro page in the Gazette on the 16th. She will use the copy from the newsletter.

SUMMER SCHEDULE:

Exhibit Opening Reception: Sunday, June 30, 3 - 5 pm at GHS Building - Martha

Ice Cream Social and Book Sale: Saturday, August 10

Book Sale 10 - 4 at Lyles Garage (Patty & Jean will sort books)

Ice Cream Social 2 - 4 on GHS lawn

Annual Meeting: Monday, August 5, 7 pm in Fellowship Hall

Bobby Ferlice-Rubio "Lifestyles of Early Vermonters" Part 2

The ice cream social and book sale need volunteers. Lynette volunteered to help with the book sale in the morning, Nancy will work the middle of the day slot and Kyle and Erika will help with the close.

Food is needed for the upcoming Bayley-Hazen walk on the 28th and for our annual meeting on Monday, August 5th at 7pm in Fellowship hall.

Next Meeting: The Annual Meeting: Monday, August 5th, at 7pm. Bring a snack to share. We are expecting a crowd!
